- A world atlas for the whole family, with comprehensive and detailed
- Approximately 20,000 icons marking main tourist highlights
- Unique encyclopedia of geographical and "man-made"

The Great Atlas of the World presents award-winning cartography - awards received from a number of international cartographic institutions. In conjunction with a richly illustrated encyclopedia of the geographical and "man-made" records of our planet, it makes for a world atlas of superlatives in the literal sense.

It is a geographical reference work for the whole family, which perfectly combines profound knowledge with one of the most comprehensive and most detailed atlases in the history of cartography, an atlas that makes browsing, research and study into exciting entertainment.
