Do you have to believe in destiny... to fulfill your own?

Diondray Azur never questioned his regular life. But everything changes when he learns that the true history of his family and his world isn't what he was taught. When he hears of the Book of Kammbi and its ancient prophecy, he sets out on a quest for the truth.

Diondray doubts the prophecy, which says it can only be fulfilled by the descendent of a great leader. As the challenges on his journey mount, all signs point to him as the one with a prophetic destiny.

He'll stop at nothing for the truth, but what will happen when he finds it?

The Descendant of Destiny is a fantasy novel with spiritual overtones. If you like rich new worlds, introspective characters, and thoughtful social commentary, then you'll love the first book in the United Kammbia series from Marion Hill.
