The Judicial Double Standard in America: Favors Rich over the Poor, Citizen over Immigrant and Corporate Crimes over an Individual Emmanuel Adetula

I have no apology to offer anyone for whom I have become with my negative life experience in America because there is always a price to pay for being different from others in a different culture and environment, where using your talents, goodwill, and gifts is misunderstood and not welcomed or respected or appreciated but labeled as fraud or labeled as being stupid, a fool, a terrorist or an anti-Christ or anti-American because of fear/phobia in America. Nevertheless, when my life is over, the books that I have written will let one know my story—that I have been on this North American continent. Though I have no justice in Los Angeles County, God's favor and anointing is still upon my life. Materialism is not my goal in life. The grace and mercy of God, which have seen me through the past years, are still sufficient and available for me to win my battles today, therefore my dedication of this book goes to no one than the Holy Spirit my divine Counselor and helper, who never left me alone when everybody thought it was over for me, but he gave me the wisdom and knowledge to write myself free from the bondage of life that I found myself embed in as an immigrant in America , My dedication goes to the indwelling power of the holy spirit who made me to become what I am born to be by his power and not by my own might, not by my own good work but by my heritage in the righteousness of Jesus Christ purchased by his blood for me, for the United States of America from now on has become part of my constituency to serve mankind.. I am what the world have made of me because of the way the world treated me, like a second-class citizen here among you, I am a product of my environment, my society and my own past life experiences , and I am what I am by the grace of God, and I am still here to continue to serve mankind ! Shalom.
