To Jeremy Bentham, Esq. MY DEAR si RjM aracaybo, Feb. 5, 1824. I TAKE the liberty of dedicating the following pages to you, because I am convinced there is no one more aware of the evils of a crowded population, and defective social institutions, or who would more gladly anticipate in the New World such improved forms of political existence as we must almost despair of witnessing in the Old. It is superfluous to insist on the paramount interest of Great Britain to plant in South America a nation of customeis whose trade will one day, from the fertility of their soil and superior value of its productions, become of infinitely more importance than even that of the United States. There is yet another interesting consideration the political wheel has very nearly come full circle in the A ntilles. Spain is not the only nation whose crimes will meet with retribution in the downfall of colonial establishments founded on anti-social principles.
