Painting for Peace - A Coloring Book For All Ages Carol Swartout Klein

Perfect for all ages, Painting for Peace: A Coloring Book is designed for adults and children to color together.

The coloring book lets you join the hundreds of artists who transformed a community - giving your creative interpretation of their work with markers, colored pencils, gel pens, or watercolors.

Continuing on the themes of the first book, Painting for Peace in Ferguson, the book continues the conversation about hope, unity, peace, and love with inspirational quotes by leaders such as Martin Luther King, Jr.

The ready-to-color line drawing designs are based on the works of art created in Ferguson, MO in 2015, and include messages of peace, love, and community.

Some unique features of this coloring book include:

- A range of designs from simple to elaborate
- Designed so that adults and children can color together or for the individual who wants variety in one book
- Lay flat binding making the book easy to use for lefties or righties
- Uses high-quality paper and only one design per page so colors won't bleed through

Now parents and grandparents can doodle, color, and get creative with their little ones, making their own images based on the murals that inspired Painting for Peace in Ferguson.

More than a dozen of the original art pieces as well as some new designs are featured with both simple and elaborate elements making it appropriate for all ages. A wonderful companion piece to the award-winning children's picture book Painting for Peace in Ferguson that has been acclaimed by reviewers, teachers, parents, and kids alike.

Our Mission Continues 100% of the profits from Painting for Peace will be donated to youth, education and small businesses in Ferguson, Missouri and the surrounding communities
