Code of Federal Regulations, Title 7, Agriculture, Pt. 210-299, Revised as of January 1, 2016

The Code of Federal Regulations is a codification of the general and permanent rules published in the Federal Register by the Executive departments and agencies of the United States Federal Government. This official volume features content on national school lunch programs, special milk, breakfast, summer food service, child and adult care food programs. Included are rules and procedures related to nutritional education and training, cash in lieu of donated foods, food stamp distribution, state participation, farmers market nutritional programs, certification of eligible households, general regulations and more.

Farmers, ranchers, community event planners, K-12 public and private school administrators, food service personnel, nutrition counselors, Federal and state welfare program administrators, policy analysts, and other personnel, plus adult and child nutritionists, and assistant living dietary program administrators, social workers, and nonprofit groups associated with food programs, such as "Meals on Wheels" community volunteer personnel may be interested in this volume.
