AFFAIRS OF THE HEART & SOUL is a collection of 132 romantic love poems written over a span of thirty-two years by celebrated American poet, Robert Burns—and it speaks to everyone who has ever loved, lost, and dared to love again... Uniquely presented in five "waves," Robert Burns takes us on a poetic journey into his heart and through his soul. With a touch of the auld Scottish language, readers will find themselves transported to a place where love is not merely a dream, but a reality truly and faithfully lived. Revealing a rare openness and a lifelong appetite for romance, however short or long each of his relationships may have been, Robert Burns writes with an honesty that reflects the vulnerability and the innocence of every human heart.
