Excerpt from Memorandum by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Venezuela: Relative to the Note of Lord Salisbury to Mr. Olney, Dated November 26, 1895, on the Question of Boundary Between Venezuela and British Guayana

Most. Excellent Sir:

The reply, dated November 26th last, transmitted to Your Excellency through the British Ambassador at Washington by the Chief Secretary of State of Her Britannic Majesty's Government, has elicited special interest in this office; the more particularly since it is known to have been occasioned by the very able and lucid exposition which Your Excellency had previously brought to the attention of the Court of St. James touching the question pending between Venezuela and the British Colony of Demerara. The Government of the Republic, naturally desirous of not leaving uncorrected some of the statements and ideas therein put forth by the representative of Her Majesty's Government relative to the question named, has thought it not inexpedient to cause to be prepared by this Ministry a Memorandum on the subject, which, together with a copy of this note, will be handed to Your Excellency by Senor José Andrade, the Venezuelan Minister at Washington.

I beg, therefore, that Your Excellency may be pleased to give this Memorandum your careful attention.
