If you could see the memories of every person you met would it be a blessing or a curse? John Calabrace's life has been in havoc since he was a very small child. He spends his life fighting through a flood of memories, most of which are not his own. The second he is touched by another person, he knows every memory & feeling they have ever experienced, and those memories stay permanently etched in his head. What might seem to be a wonderful gift to some, also has its dark sides. John flees school, finding solace in the Navy serving on a nuclear submarine. That relative peace and quiet onboard is quickly interrupted after being extracted and recruited into a world of espionage to unlock other worldly secrets. Is he an angel, is he a monster? Even his military minders can't decide. While John may know everyone else's secrets, he also has secrets of his own, and those he's afraid to reveal to anyone THE REFLECTION OF INNOCENCE, is an action-adventure story with military & paranormal influences
