Based on true events, this book tells the story of Clara and her struggle to overcome the devastating effects of childhood trauma and domestic abuse. The only glimmer of hope in Claras turbulent life was the discovery that she had a beautiful singing voice and a passion for performance. Her early dream of becoming a famous opera singer was quickly shattered by her father, but her desire to entertain and her natural talent finally resulted in her achieving a short-lived but successful career in the working clubs of the north of England. It was only while she was on stage that she truly felt loved and was able to banish her demons. But it wasnt until after another terrifying incident that Clara was finally able to fit the pieces of her life together and discover lasting happiness.
