Tales & Flukes from Life in the Trees, is the first in a four book series that depicts life at its flukiest. Each book is conceived as a fractal of the whole, and all are inspired by the author's colorful life, from his earliest impressions that led him to science and mathematics, to living in nature and environmental activism. In forty-two vignettes the author with humor and unabashed bravura brings us to his unique view of the post-modern world. This prequel to the manuscript that won the prestigious Over-all Best Piece at the Maui Writers Conference of 1994 is a pleasure to hold. 286 pages in a comfortable soft bound 8 x10 inch format with brilliant glossy cover, the book is artfully designed and graced with many color photos, poems, and paintings. Whimsical. Poignant. Outrageous. Child-like. Profound. Free. Slightly risqué. Humane. Inspired by Nature.
