Frogwillla, A Treefrog's Story Cheri L. Hallwood

When a midsummer storm floods the banks of a great pond, a young treefrog named Frogwillla finds herself separated from her mama and papa, and her beloved home, Willow's End. Alone and scared, Frogwillla soon finds the courage to venture out into the unknown on a quest to search for her parents. But many obstacles await her.

Along the way, Frogwillla discovers some unlikely friendships in a speedy dragonfly called Sunshine and a wandering turtle called Tucker. With the help of her new-found friends, they embark on a journey that teaches them the true meaning of hope, friendship, and courage.
