The burning, backstabbing, haunting low feeling in the pit of your stomach, it's not heart burn! It's love. The crazy, heart wrenching, tongue tied, obstacle course called life would be far less complicated if love were not involved. And to imagine what happens when you come to the conclusion that the love you felt for someone was a lie? That the person you gave your soul to did not hold you in the same regards, the love was never reciprocated. What do you do? Can you hold your head high and move on to something bigger and better? Or do you give in to the dark side and seek...revenge? The love Melinda thought was true turned out to be a bold faced lie and instead of taking the high road she got even. You be the judge and determine whether her actions were justified or not.
