Through the Leaves That Fall Mary Emma Tisinger

Through the Leaves that Fall is written with such feeling and touching stories that the pages take you back to your own childhood days. The happy moments, sad moments, funny moments, serious moments, and memory moments make you feel as if you grew up with Mary Emma. To walk us through the seasons of our lives in winter, spring, summer, and fall is brilliant. Mary guides us into what is important in life from every aspect-from individual to married, to family, and to spirituality. One can only imagine the fullness of life Mary experienced, which gives us hope that we, too, can experience the richness of life in every season.

Roland G. Coon Lead Pastor, Calvary Assembly of God
