A Woman Called Mary Willi Ray

A Woman Called Mary is the story of a single mother, well acquainted with grief, who triumphantly crossed the hurdles of a poverty-stricken life carrying ten children on her back. Some called her Superwoman and others called her Wonder Woman. In this book, her children, who called her Momma Mary, give eye-witness account of her battles against time, destiny and poverty at the gates of hell to transform their world. Mary is a hero who, against all odds, courageously and joyfully rose above her struggles of faith to move from a world of despair to become a royal jewel among the righteous women of God. Mary's story will inspire you to fight through your own struggles and use each as a stepping-stone to victory. It will encourage the brokenhearted and those who have lost hope to believe they can overcome the storms of life. It teaches great lessons of prayer and trusting in God to protect and heal. A Woman Called Mary serves as a testimony that you can make it no matter how big the problem if you let Jesus slay the in your life and give you peace.
