Uelsmann: Process and Perception Jerry N. Uelsmann

Description from back cover: "The work of Jerry Uelsmann, one of America's most influential and innovative contemporary photographers, is widely collected, exhibited in all major museums, and published in several books. This collection of new photographs is the first of his books in which he shows how he achieves his unique multiple images. Uelsmann narrates his own creative process in a fascinating visual account of a single day's work in the darkroom."
