Miraculous cures. Angelic revelations. Sky-rending visions. Isn't God most obvious in the spectacular? Not always, says best-selling author Philip Yancey, in this compelling look at God's sometimes surprising ways. "As a Christian journalist," he writes, "I have learned to look for traces of God." And he has found God's footprints in many places: in the wonders of a polar bear, in the oppressive prisons of Peru and Chile, and even as he's reading the plays of Shakespeare. FINDING GOD IN UNEXPECTED PLACES is an inspirational collection of writings that document Yancey's unique and refreshing insight into the ways God reveals himself to us. Hardback edition previously published in UK by Summit. This is the first time the title has appeared in paperback.
