Memoirs from the Corner Country Harold Hunt

‘Nana was an imposing woman. She was large and dark, with silver hair that fell to her waist, and strong arms that nestled me into her bosom. Her scars bore testament to her physical adventures. A lump in her shoulder at the age of 73 from the continual rebound of a 12 gauge shotgun, and a 22 calibre bullet rested alongside her spine.’ Memoirs of the Corner Country is a journey through one of the harshest terrains in outback Australia, its community relationships and the enduring struggle of a single mother with six children.
