Meet Alexandra Dance, attorney at law. Employed as a staff attorney she's only represented misdemeanor cases. She gets her big break when she is requested to represent an inmate's last appeal before facing death. With no experience with capital murder cases, the pressure is on. So much pressure Alex is flopping around like a fish out of water. That is until she enlists the help of a private investigator. Hunter Barrymore is not an attorney, but a private investigator with a secondary life that puts him in dangers way when called upon. Never one to leave a lady in distress, he accepts Attorney Dance's plea for help. Together they set out to investigate what actually happened to land a man on death row.
