Witness

W. Alvin Jackson

Witness W. Alvin Jackson

The compelling and moving memoir of a young man born to a single mother in the '50s on the South Side of Chicago and his rise from abject poverty to great heights through the grace and will of God. The book connects his real world experiences to the teachings of the bible in a way that is easy to understand. It provides a fresh and thought provoking perspective on single-mothers, faith, family and the struggle for success.
