Can you really get anything you want? Scientific research says you can. Learn how to value yourself and live life on your own terms.

Many people dream of having the courage to leave behind the herd mentality, and become a lively and confident leader of their own life. This book gives them a much-needed recipe to fulfill that dream.

This book was created to be a one-stop resource for understanding life and to inspire people to live it on their own terms.

Scientific evidence proves we are extraordinarily powerful beings. Each of us is able to choose whether we wreak havoc in our lives or create anything we want just as easily. This evidence sadly remains largely hidden, which means most people still consider themselves powerless.

The truth of our power is revealed in this book, which uses everyday life examples to show the full effects of these liberating scientific discoveries.

This author specializes in teaching people how to understand and harness their inner power and feel inspired and joyful every day.

Poole helps readers:

- * Stop trying to be what they're not -- and discover who they really are.
- * Decide what they truly want, rather than what society thinks they should have.
- * Leave behind the herd mentality and become a confident leader of their life.
- * Walk away from guilt.
- * Enjoy radiant health.
- * Turn tough economic times into fulfilling opportunities.
- * Become increasingly attractive to their partner without even trying.
- * Learn to look in the mirror and see a smart, beautiful person looking back - someone who deserves the world.

This inspiring author offers her readers warm encouragement, wise advice -- and a step-by-step recipe for creating an extraordinary life.
