Drone Art: Baltimore, is a first of its kind photography book shot entirely using the latest in civilian drone technology. The book provides a never before seen perspective of Charm City, showcasing iconic landmarks and original subjects in an entirely new light. These photos occupy a sweet spot that simply never existed before, above a crane and below a plane. The project was put together by husband and wife aerial photographers Terry & Belinda Kilby. The pair spent 3 years learning about the technology and developing their own style before assembling their body of work into this book. You can read about their journey, and watch how each step had a direct result on their work.
