Editorial Reviews for the Swimming Through Clouds Trilogy:

"It is the rare author who can end an emotionally compelling trilogy with the same resounding truth from which it was formed, but turned inside out. In Soaring through Stars, Rajdeep Paulus does exactly that. Crafting her characters' inner growth at a believable and often heart-wrenching pace across the series, this final book extends an exquisite peace to hearts where extreme fear used to dwell. This series should be on the shelves of every American high school. Soaring through Stars is a beautiful, perfect ending to a truly exceptional series... Don't miss this one."

~USA TODAY (HEA) Serena Chase, Author of The Ryn

"Rajdeep Paulus writes young adult fiction with a new kind of hero...Despair and cruelty haunt its pages. Raj's most heroic characters find the strength to be compassionate at moments when it would be much easier to stand by and do nothing."

~AMAZON, Amazon Author Success Story, Editor at Amazon

PRAISE for Soaring Through Stars:

"Tough and touching, resilient and raw--RajdeepPaulus has crafted a story of love and abuse with the deft touch of a master,and she never averts her pen from the realities that face far too many womenand children."

~ Tosca Lee, NY Times Bestselling Author of

Havah and The Books of Mortals series with TedDekker

In Soaring Through Stars,the final book in her trilogy, Rajdeep Paulus displays an almost magicalability to portray dark and haunting subject matter with her descriptivelylyrical style. Her poetic prose not only manages to bring her characters'devastating struggles vividly to life, but also their singular grace andcourage as they fight to wrestle hope from the rubble of epic loss, grief, andtrauma.

~ Lisa Amowitz, Author of Breaking Glass,Vision, and Until Beth

"In SoaringThrough Stars, Rajdeep Paulus does what few authors of series areable to do--she stays fiercely loyal to her characters and allows them to findthe natural ending to an emotional journey. Something beautiful is createdwhere there had only been chaos."

"Brilliantly crafted, Rajdeep Paulus stitched what seems dark and brokeninto a tapestry of hope and love."

~ Jennifer Murgia, Author of Between These Lines and Forest of Whispers

"A raw and heart-wrenchingaccount of abuse, human trafficking, and enduring hope, the Swimming Through Clouds series is anincredible story of the strength of true love and the power of courage. Talia,Lagan, and Jesse will sneak into your heart and stay there long after you readthe last line."

~ Amalie Howard, Bestselling IndieNext author of Alpha Goddess

"This is a beautiful not-so-average love story and an ending that stays with you for days after you've finished reading the book."

~ Brown Girl Magazine

"Deep, sometimes quite dark, and very emotional YA story."

~ Once Upon a YA Book Blog

"I live in the in between. Between holding on and letting go. Hurt clings to me. Hope teases me. Home. I can't explain it, but sometimes, I just want to go home."

Talia and Jesse Vanderbilt have escaped a childhood full of abuse, and with the help of their friends have found the courage to publicly tell their stories. When they face obstacles trying to have their father convicted, the siblings can't help but consider the option to walk away and move on with their lives. Someone unexpected brings his own secrets, forcing the Vanderbilt teens to revisit their pasts and rethink their plans. Through it all, Lagan and Talia's Post-it love story blossoms, while Jesse and Summer hit roadblocks. From the award-winning author of Swimming Through Clouds and Seeing Through Stones comes a powerful story of freedom and belonging in this final book of the young adult trilogy that began with an invitation on a little, yellow, Post-it note.
