Bring Me Sunshine Wendy Storer

Daisy's dad forgets to get dressed sometimes. Little brother Sam hates being told what to do. And Daisy feels more like a parent than a thirteen year-old girl. There's no time for homework, no time for friends, and even worse, she is not allowed to play the drums any more. And then Dylan Bell moves back into town; a glimmer of sunshine in Daisy's gloomy existence. There's something really cute about Dylan these days, and it's great he's learned the guitar and wants them to be in a band together; but how is Daisy going to find the time? Bring Me Sunshine is an inspirational story about following your heart, never giving up and living in the moment. It was runner up in the Mslexia Children's Novel Competition 2012/13.
