• Gives valuable insight into three important stages of life — dating, marriage, and raising a family. • Explores four temperament types, compatibility, and why opposites usually attract. • How to transform marital conflicts into a loving, lifelong partnership • Offers time-tested and scriptural principles for a satisfactory and Christ-centered family. Marriages are failing at an alarming rate in this country. According to the Barna group, 27 percent of those who consider themselves to be born-again Christians have been divorced. How can a young couple guard themselves against becoming one of these statistics? This enlightening book by Tim and Beverly LaHaye presents the answer. Have you ever wondered why your spouse seems to be so different from you? Are you puzzled by why God would allow two such different people to be married to one another? The LaHaye's answer these questions and many more. They explain the role that temperament has on our actions and how this and the basic differences between men and women can create conflict in a marriage. This book is a valuable resource for finding the partner God has picked for you and learning to have a first-class relationship with them. For any young couple just beginning their life together, this book is an essential tool for keeping your relationship Christ-centered and learning to raise godly children. All Christians, whether single or married, young or old, can benefit from the knowledge of the LaHaye's 50-year marriage and extensive counseling experiences.
