Stephanie Foley was minding her own business as she toured the Tower of London. In the blink of an eye she was transported back to the 13th Century where she had to adapt to their way of life. Sir Godfrey de Montdidier was busy listening to King John disparage the Archbishop of Canterbury when a nearby altercation had the King send him out to investigate. What he discovered changed his life completely. Life became stressful for them both as the signing of the Magna Carta was drawing ever closer, the rebel Barons became more aggressive and Stephanie had to avoid the advances of the King's Court as well as the animosity of the Queen and her Ladies in Waiting.
